Englewood Times Begins Vol. XXXIII

With this issue the Englewood Times begins it's thirty third year of publication. It has been owned and edited by the present management all this time, and is a pretty husky old sheet yet, although the raven locks of the editor have turned to a measly muddy gray. We congratulate ourselves and thank our patrons and friends, and hope to remain with them many moons longer, with the absence of the Sheriff and the help of their support. Many of our old Englewood friends have passed on since our first issue, peace to their ashes and we are now catering to their children and grandchildren and hope to continue until it is our turn to pass on but we are feelin' pretty pert right now, we thank you.

Compel Street Contractors to Rebuild Defective Work

Less than five years ago the system of streets between Wentworth Ave. and Wallace St. were paved with asphaltum under a guarantee of five years from the contractors to keep them in proper repair and make good any defects. Part of this work, noticeably the north and south streets, were well paved and are in good condition, but the numbered streets, especially 64th, 65th Sts. and 65th Pl., are in very bad condition, broken lumpy and disintegrating in spots and it is the duty of the contractors to make them good. In the first place the asphaltum on these streets was too soft and "rolled up" under the most ordinary travel and they need resurfacing. It is time for the property owners to move in this matter and call the attention of the city authorities to it.

Is "H. C. L." Altogether to Blame?

Every one from the humble day laborer to the banker takes a nasty slap at the high cost of living, but does it prevent any of us from living high? We note that there is more travel than ever before, high class travel with Pullman sleepers and dining car service and all their additional expense added and the festive porter looks contempt at less than a dollar or at least a half dollar "tip." The theatres are crowded at every performance; the ice cream and soda water fountains fairly buzz at from 17 to 22 cents per buzz; more automobiles are being sold and you cannot buy a car for immediate delivery now; silk shirts knock a ten spot endways, yet how many are worn, and thus we may run the entire gamut and learn that everyone is spending money, and lots of it and never mind the kicks until they find a pound of beef costs a penny more, or some other commodity has taken a histe. The truth is that people who never had much money before, by reason of greatly increased wages have scads of it now and are spending it so freely that everything is boosted to meet the demand. There is more money being spent now than ever in the history of the country. No matter what the prices are, people have the money and they buy and buy, and at the same time keep up a howl on the high cost of living. When a man receives his pay envelope he begins figuring how scant it is and in an hour is spilling it out like a drunken sailor on his first day in port. The way to save money is not to spend all one gets hold of and until this lesson is learned the "H. C. L." will continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Schram left today for Holland.

Mrs. A. U. Lauderback and daughter Pauline of 6812 Normal blvd. are enjoying a week's vacation with friends at Minnesota Point, Minn.

Ladies will save money by buying their dresses or coats at 345 W. 63rd st. from Ben Heyns who succeeded M. Stein. There is a grand clearance sale now going on and bargains for everyone.—adv.

Mrs. Eva Osterhout of Kenosha Wis. returned to her home this week after a two weeks stay here, when she was called to be at the bedside and death of Dr. Elizabeth Stanford, at her late residence 331 63rd st.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these hazards, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm properties. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Do your Jams and Jellies ever "Candy"?

Many women have been so discouraged by this trouble that they have almost stopped putting up fruit.

Yet, there is an easy, simple way to avoid it. Use ½ Karo (Red Label) and ½ sugar in your preserving syrup, instead of sugar alone.

Karo is a fine, clear syrup, with a natural affinity for the juices of the fruit.

It blends the sugar with the fruit juice—brings out all the "fruity" flavor.

You, too, will obtain perfect results this summer if you will use ½ Karo (Red Label) and ½ sugar instead of all sugar for preserving.

You will find your jelly clear and firm—your preserves rich with heavy syrup—your jams deliciously mellow and "fruity". Not a sign of "candying".

For Cooking, Baking and Candy-Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

Use ½ Karo (red label) and ½ sugar

Makes perfect jams, jellies and preserves.

FREE A real cook book including recipes for sure results in preserving everybody appreciates. Sixty-eight pages handsomely illustrated. Write us today. The book is free.

Wedded by a selfish father to a dissolute cad whom she loathed, this pure young girl was expected to "love, honor and obey." The world called that right. Then she spurned the ties her husband had broken, shattered the lie that bound her, sought the aid of a decent man she loved. And the world called that wrong. "BILL HENRY"

Charles Ray is certainly great in these countryboy parts, and in this picture he has another chance to show just how awkward and shy he can be. As the traveling salesman for an electric vibrator he starts out into the world on his bicycle, with his handbook on salesmanship and sticks to his job despite the many harrowing experiences he encounters. Of course a beautiful girl turns up, and at the psychological moment Charles comes along on his little old wheel and saves a piece of valuable land which unscrupulous parties are trying to wrest from her in a manner really quite unique. Of course he wins the girl, too.

Band Concert at Gresham

On Monday evening, August 25th, at eight o'clock the Chicago Band Association will give a concert in the park at 87th St., between Emerald and Union Aves. This organization has appointed a chairman in each ward to head a Woman's Auxiliary for the purpose of furnishing entertainments to the public in the various small parks throughout the city. Mrs. Albert J. Fisher has been apointed as chairman of such organization for the Thirty-second ward.

This will be an entertainment worth going miles to hear, and a cordial invitation is extended to all the people living within a reasonable distance. This is the first of a series of entertainments of a similar nature we can expect, if the people show their appreciation by turning out to this one. Mrs. Fisher has appointed Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Tidd of Brainerd, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Arnold, Mrs. F. W. Dayton and Mrs. T. E. Harrison, as a Publicity Committee.

About twelve years ago, the Gresham Improvement Association started a movement to get the small "Park Boards" to take over that portion of 87th St. between the Rock Island tracks and Eggleston Ave. and convert it into a small park. Through its efforts the Board of Local Improvements carried out a plan of paving by making a narrow roadway on the north and south side of the 200 foot street, leaving the center so that it might be converted into a park. After a long fight, in which the citizens of Gresham lent their united support, and through the constant upport of our Alderman, A. J. Fisher it was finally accepted by the Small Parks Board, and an appropriation secured for the improvement.

This has resulted in converting a spot that heretofore had been a depository for tin cans and a growth of weeds to one of the most beautiful spots on the South Side. But it is the desire of the Park Board that it is not only to be admired for its beauty but that it should be used, and it has fallen to the lot of the Chicago Band Association to start a movement that will bring to the people in this vicinity an opportunity to fully enjoy it and it is to be hoped that they all will turn out and show their appreciation and enjoy its benefits.

Admired His Pluck.

"Well," said Uncle Si Bruggins after a solo by a fashionable church choir tenor, "if that ain't the rudest thing I ever saw. Just as soon as that young man began to sing, every other member of the choir stopped. But he went through with it, and I must say I admire his spunk."—Boston Transcript.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. is offering some unusual attractions as will be seen by their advertisement in another column. A feature of the Halsted is their $5,000 Bartola orchestra organ which Mr. Frank has recently installed, being the finest procurable and the leading musical attraction of the house and one that is well worth a visit to hear.

Saturday, Aug. 23rd. Matinee and night. "The Profiteers," starring Fannie Ward. An after-the-war drama in five thrilling acts. The graphic story of a despicable frame-up against the love and happiness of a fearless American who boldly tackled the predatory profiteers and exposed them to public scorn—of the manner in which their leader tortured this man's wife and held her in mental torment with the threat of a disgraceful scandal hung over her head like the sword of Damocles—of a lickspittle "lounge-lizzard" and the despicable part he played—of the sure unerring nemesis which inevitably must corral the conscienceless money-grubbers whose millions cannot protect them from fate!

Englewood may well be proud of the Harvard theatre. Its cleanliness; splendid ventilation and especially its pure cooling ventilators are such as to make a visit to it enjoyable even were the pictures not always of the very highest grade. The orchestra and music is entrancing and enjoyable and the wonderful projecting machine with its perfect curtain protects the eyes and gives the only proper presentation of the high grade reels that the management knows so well how to secure for its patrons. You may visit the Harvard at any time, and you will enjoy your visit. They have no off days"—every program is a complete entertainment in itself and hence every Harvard patron becomes a warm enthusiast for the leading house of this part of the city.

Friday, Aug. 22nd. Matinee and night. One day only. The theatrical sensation of a decade, "The Thirteenth Chair." Adapted for the screen from Bayard Veiller's epochally successful spoken drama of the same name; which established some records of its own for run and attendance. Also latest Pathe News, Mutt and Jeff cartoon and a scream two-reel comedy.

Saturday, Aug. 23rd. Continuous 2 to 11 p. m. The magnetic and charming Ethel Clayton in "A Sporting Chance." Here is an especially good Ethel Clayton picture. She meets a man in prison stripes on a deserted road, takes an intense liking to him, shields him from his pursuers and— Also a scream two-part Mack Sennett comedy, topical events and matinee only the thrilling serial, "Perils of Thunder Mountain."

Sunday only, Aug. 24th. Continuous 2 to 11 p. m. The popular star of rural roles, Charles Ray, in his latest and most humorous play, "Bill Henry." A rattling humorous picture, filled with "juice" from that darned old electric rheumatism cure Bill Henry couldn't sell. Sparkling with romance! Also Pathe Review, Universal News and good two-part comedy. Matinee only. "Elmo the Mighty."

Monday, August 25th. Matinee and night. Tom Moore in his most ambitious play, "Heartsease," by Charles E. Klein. Tom Moore is starred as a poor composer. Rarely has so sympathetic a characterization been made. Whimsical, oftentimes eccentric and temperamental, the oddities of the genius are accentuated.

Tuesday and Wednesday, August 26-27th. Matinee and evening, the delightful star, Olive Thomas, in a drama of youthful impulse, "The Spite Bride." Romance! What we all crave and most of us have only in small doses. This play is full of it. It's simply a knockout—the best thing that the screen has seen in many moons. It has snap, dash and zest; a human picture of human people presented in a human way. And Olive Thomas was never better in her life. She is the essence of youth—youth at its finest—with its simplicity, grace, charm and wistfulness. You must see this play.

Thursday, August 28th. Matinee and night. Versatile and beautiful Bessie Barriscale is a fascinating beauty in the one-piece bathing suit she wears in "The Woman Michael Married." Miss Barriscale, whose aquatic accomplishments have heretofore never been exploited, is revealed as an expert fancy diver and swimmer, and makes an extremely attractive figure in her skinny "Annette Kellermann."

LINDEN THEATRE
63rd Street at Halsted

E. Thos. Beatty's Linden Theatre showing the world's greatest motion pictures. Don't miss any of the shows advertised for this week. Each is a master picture and deserving of the highest praise. We recommend them all.

Friday and Saturday, August 22 and 23. Charles Ray in "Bill Henry." Charles Ray is certainly great in these country boy parts, and in this picture he has another chance to show just how awkward and shy he can be. As the traveling salesman for an electric vibrator he starts out into the world on his bicycle, with his handbook on salesmanship and sticks to his job despite the many harrowing experiences he encounters. Of course a beautiful girl turns up, and at the psychological moment Charles comes along on his little old wheel and saves a piece of valuable land which unscrupulous parties are trying to wrest from her in a manner really quite unique. Of course he wins the girl, too. Also Friday—Hearst News and good comedy. Also Saturday, Mutt and Jeff and Burton Holmes. Extra special attraction, Saturday matinee, Elmo Lincoln in "Elmo the Mighty."

Sunday and Monday, August 24-25th. The screen's most remarkable character, William S. Hart, in a powerful romance of human souls, "Wagon Tracks." Little he knew where those tracks would lead! But some one had slain his brother, and grimly he followed the trail—to vengeance—to death—to love. "Wagon

Wm. S. Hart in "Wagon Tracks," Sunday and Monday, Aug. 24-25th

Tracks" tells a story—a vivid, absorbing, entertaining story that has a tremendous appeal for women and men—and all other human beings. Another great human drama, throbbing with the life of the plains and mountains—made vital by the genius of William S. Hart. Also usual good comedy pictures.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 26 and 27. Pauline Frederick in "The Peace of Roaring River." An amazing new role for the screen's foremost emotional actress; a big, modern drama founded on the evils wrought by a matrimonial newspaper; a story that is so fascinatingly different from the ordinary run of photoplays as to catch the attention and hold the interest from the first reel to the last.

Thursday and Friday, Aug. 28 and 29. "The Birth of a Race" is the greatest, most massive and daring photoplay ever conceived. It is splendid in its artistry, tense, heroic, intelligent and dignified. It is the last word in realism, grandeur and dramatic art. It cost over a million dollars to make, was over two years in the making, and employed the services of over 10,000 people.

"Heartsease"

By Charles E. Klein

A memorable play, it has the universal touch that makes the whole world kin. It is a potent drama; the central theme is so strongly impressed in most people as to make this picture deeply significant and unforgettable.

Tom Moore is starred as a poor composer. Rarely has so sympathetic a characterization been made. Whimsical, oftentimes eccentric and temperamental, the oddities of the genius are accentuated.

Wedded by a selfish father to a dissolute cad whom she loathed, this pure young girl was expected to "love, honor and obey." The world called that right. Then she spurned the ties her husband had broken, shattered the lie that bound her, sought the aid of a decent man she loved. And the world called that wrong. NATIONAL THEATRE

The season at the National Theatre will open on Sunday, August 24th and an entire new policy will be in vogue. The new management promises an abundance of amusement at a very low price. They will make special efforts to produce and engage shows that are especially pleasing and of the sort that will appeal to ladies and children. There will be three complete shows given and all for the one price of admission. The shows will run continuous from one o'clock in the afternoon until 11 o'clock at night. The patrons can go when they please and stay as long as they please. There will be a complete change of bill from start to finish every week and nothing but the best will be given. Arrangements have been made with Alexander Pantages the well known vaudeville wizard, to furnish the vaudeville portion of the bill. Every week there will appear acts that contain novelty, mystery and pleasing specialties that are new to this part of the country. High class musical acts, acrobat, gymnasts, wirewalkers, equilibrists and all kinds of vaudeville specialties. Each week there will be a new Musical Revue, produced by a company of twenty singers, dancers and comedians. These farces with music, are just long enough to please the music and dance loving people. Clever comedians will furnish lots of fun, and the scenic and costume environments will be of the most elaborate ever seen in a popular priced theatre. Each week a complete change of photo-plays will also be on tap. The National Musical Stock company will be a permanent fixture. The company has been selected with care and the different bills presented each week will be filled with songs, dances and music and the comedy will be of the side-splitting order. The company is under the direction of Mr. Charles Le Roy, who for many years was one of Broadway's leading producers. Miss Virginia Cleary, who for years was a leading prima donna in several of the Klaw and Erlanger productions will also be in the company. Walter Brown is known from coast to coast as a comedian of repute. O. J. Post is a singer of ability. He has been featured in several musical comedies for years. Tom Hanlon is a juvenile of consequence. Possessor of a pleasing voice and clever in his acting. Miss Florence Carter is also well known and will soon become a favorite with the National's patrons. Miss Etta Donnelly will also be in the company. She is direct from the Casino, New York City. Others of note will appear from time to time. The opening bill will be called "Oh, Genevive." It is filled with tuneful melodies and lots of novel songs and dances. The comedy is a predominating feature and there will be an opportunity to introduce the beauty chorus that will be one of the features of the production. The vaudeville portion of the bill will be headed by Jed Dooley, a comic who has no equal on the vaudeville stage as a funmaker. Marthony and Leona are a duo that will display a harmony of grace and strength and dexterity. The Great Harmon is a violinist of no mean ability. He is as well liked in his classics as in rage and jazz. The photo-play portion will be of a varied program. A news weekly of current events will be seen, a side splitting comedy with action and laughs will follow, a western comedy drama, "The Hidden Badge," with Pete Morrison and Madge Lane as the stars and a five reel feature will complete the program with Hedda Nova, in "The Spitfire of Saville" a delightful story. The entire program will be given each day and the three complete shows will all be seen for one price of admission.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

LOOK PLEASANT

We cannot, of course, all be handsome,
And it's hard for us all to be good.
We are sure, now and then, to be lonely,
And we don't always do as we should.

To be patient is not always easy,
To be cheerful is much harder still.
But at least we can always be pleasant,
If we make up our minds that we will.

And it pays every time to be kindly,
Although you feel worried and blue;
If you smile at the world and look cheerful,
The world will soon smile back at you.

So try to brace up and look pleasant.
No matter how long you are down.
Good humor is always contagious;
You banish your friends when you frown.

It will take some higher wages to pay for the time lost by strikes this year.

I have always noticed that "ill' gotten wealth" is the kind that the other fellow has.

With the present scale of wage it will no longer be necessary to buy second hand teeth.

A bachelor seldom knows how mean he really is, but a married man is told it frequently.

Even the beggar peddlars are striking and demand a dime instead of a nickel for their worthless pencils nowadays.

The vacation season is about over and those who needed it most couldn't take one while those who didn't need one would take it anyway.

"Yes," said Mrs. Twickembury, "you seldom see Mr. Twickembury without a cigar in his mouth. He's a most invertebrate smoker."

When the landlords learn that their taxes are being boosted nearly one-half, they will boost the rents again. Nothing is so conducive to boosting as boosting.

When a friend asked Casey how he felt, he answered "Begorry I'm afraid to tell yiz for fear the government may levy a tax iv some sort on me feelin' so good."

Mr. Brown was digging in his front garden. Presently a friend passed by. "Halloa, Brown!" he cried, cheerily. "Gardening?" "No!" said Mr. Brown, emphatically, "I'm not. I'm sitting on the roof teaching the sparrows to sit up and beg. What are you doing? Having a bath?"

The smart fellow from the city, thinking to "guy" the country lad, asked, "Do you have many pretty girls in the country?" "Wall, I should say we do," answered the boy. "Why, we hev so derned many of them the country boys ain't enough for them, and they hev to marry some derned skunks ov city cusses."

"Shure, Oi belave in unlooky days," says Casey. "Whoy, Oi belave it is unlooky to be sthruck be lightnin' on Monday or run over be an autymobilly on Chuesdah, or to lose a tin dollar bill on Wednesday, or to be bit be a mad dog on Tursdah, or to be blowed up by a dinymite boom on Fridah, or to mate a mon ye owe tin dollars to on Sathurdah, or to catch no fish on Sundah, iv coorse they do be unlooky days."

Preacher—Do you go to school, Elsie, dear?

Elsie—Yes, and I like my teacher.

Preacher—What do you learn there, dear?

Elsie—Reading, writing and gozintas.

Preacher — Gozintas — what are they?

Elsie—Don't you know? Why, three gozinta twelve four times; five gozinta fifteen three times, like that.

Casey was badly stung on the place he elected to spend his vacation, and this is the conversation that occurred between he and his late landlord: "Are you going already?" "Yis, I nade sum vacation." "Why, you've been here only three days." "Oi knows ut only too will, ond I hev to go sum place to find sum cumfert." "I hope nothing is wrong." "Oh, no, iverythin' hes been kumin' rite fer the miskitows Oi do be thinkin'." "But the cuisine was all right, wasn't it?" "Yis it wor foine fer a glass eater or a goat." "Well, I'll look for you back next year," and Casey thundered back "Mebbe so, but if ye see me kumin' ye hed bether hide versilf, fer Oi'll be kumin' to kill ye."

Band Concert and Patriotic Talk

A unique combination, the Chicago Band and Col. John V. Clinnin, will honor the 32nd Ward with their presence on Monday evening, August 25th, at the 87th St. Park, Gresham; the band to be stationed at Emerald Ave.

This famous organization of band instrumentalists is well known to the people of Chicago. It is maintained for free service among the people, in parks, playground, settlement districts, school houses and school yards and at civic and patriotic affairs.

During this summer it launched a new community and Americanization movement by giving a concert in every ward in Chicago in which its services were desired. In each instance the concert was made the medium for awakening community interest and of simulating a patriotism all too apt to become dormant now that war is over.

The 87th St. Park at Gresham, although about ten years old, has been of slow development and is just reaching the stage where it is admirable for an outdoor community center. The concert which will be given there Monday night, therefore, will be in the nature of a park dedication and an immense attendance is hoped for by the 32nd Ward Woman' Auxiliary having the arrangement in charge. This committee comprise the following women who have lon been identified with some feature o community work. Chairman Mrs. Albert J. Fisher, Mrs. E. H. Arnold Mrs. Willson W. Augur, Mrs. Charle. H. Brown, Mrs. F. W. Dayton, Mrs Harry C. Furneaux, Mrs. Thomas E. Harrison, Mrs W. T. Hicks, Mrs. E A. Mead, Mrs. William W. Munzell Mrs. F. L. Tidd, Mrs. E. H. Thielens Mrs. Fred Upton, Mrs. W. Veazie Mrs. Harriet Vander Vaart.

Active also in rendering most effective assistance are the Gresham and Brainerd Improvement Associations headed by Messrs E. H. Arnold and F. L. Tidd. Other local prominent improvement and business associations have also given the movement their hearty endorsement.

During the world war The Chicago Band was assigned, without charge to aid every drive in support of war aims and war needs and it is especially fitting therefore that Col. John V. Clinnin, recently returned from overseas should be the patriotic speaker for the occasion. Col. Clinnin speaks as forcefully as he fought and is worth going a long distance to hear even were there no other attraction.

The committee cordially invites the people of the 32nd Ward to attend this entertainment and become acquainted with a sister community. It will cost you nothing beyond the effort of attending. Take the kiddies Mr. Weil likes to have them sing.

Holy Name Society Meeting

The largest crowd in the history of the Archdiocesan Union of the Holy Name Society is expected at the next quarterly meeting to be held in Holy Angels Hall, Oakwood Blvd. and Vincennes Ave., at 3:00 P. Since the last quarterly meeting the society has expanded into nearly every parish in the Archdiocese and with the increased membership many more delegates will respond now than ever before. The meeting will be addressed by Rt. Rev A. J. McGavick, D. D., and Thomas H. Cannon on the present developments and the future possibilities of the society. There will also be much important new business to be considered.

The new firm are gentlemanly fellows and invite Englewood men and young men to call and inspect their line.

To Friends:

My little daughter Jane, and I acknowledge our grateful appreciation of the comforting letters, telegrams, messages, personal calls, and also the beautiful flowers. They came when a mountain of sorrow crushed us—when we were stunned by the sudden and tragic death of our loving gentle mother and wife, Clara Mildred Lyle. She has left us and we are very lonely—almost in despair. But for the hope in the future in which she so confidently believed and the sweet inspiration of her beautiful character, which lingers and sustains us, this life would have little further attraction. She was young, full of hope, sunny and cheerful; very soon to be a mother again, but the shadows fell quickly, her work was ended and on that fateful Saturday morning July 19th, she passed from my arms into the arms of Him who said, "Come unto Me, all ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest."

JOHN H. LYLE.
